THE IDAHO BOTANICAL GARDEN, located at the base of the Boise foothills in the Old Penitentiary Historic District, is a beautiful year-round retreat for garden lovers. As an inspiration to Idaho gardeners for twenty-five years now, the Garden continues to help people of all ages and abilities experience what's possible in a garden setting.

At the Idaho Botanical Garden, children and adults learn about plants, local animals and ecology. Visitors experience the opportunity to see professional designs and unique plants up close, as well as the chance to learn about how to incorporate these elements into their very own gardens.

The nonprofit 501(c)(3) Idaho Botanical Garden receives no city, state or federal funding. The Garden relies on its members to maintain and expand its ability to provide an inspiring educational destination for garden lovers, children, and area families, as well as a beautiful location for events that bring the community together.

Please see inside for details.

MISSION STATEMENT
The Idaho Botanical Garden provides a full garden experience for all ages that enhances our community's quality of life through plant collections; education, programs; and entertainment, cultural and community events.
